

November 21- November 24th

Métis Week

On Nov. 16, 1885, Métis leader Louis Riel, who led the Red River and North-West Métis resistance, was executed for treason and he is commemorated on this day. To coincide with Louis Riel Day, the Métis Nation of Alberta has declared the week surrounding the anniversary of Riel's execution as Métis Week. To commemorate Louis Riel and celebrate the Metis culture, Aurora students participated in multiple learning experiences. Pictures of some of the activities can be found below.
